

“Thank You, Ma’am” and “Kindness” both depict individuals who have changed as a result of hardships. Write an essay that identifies and analyzes the lasting effects that conflict has had on one character in “Thank You, Ma’am” and the speaker in “Kindness.”

Develop your essay by providing textual evidence from both texts. You must use at least two quotes from each text.